

- To give someone the jitters
- To have/get the jitters

- To get the wind up
- To shudder
- To shiver
- To send shivers (up and) down the spine
- To give someone the shivers
- To chill the spine
- To feel one's blood run cold/freeze
- To be as white as a sheet
- To set someone's teeth on edge
- To make one's teeth chatter
- To make someone's hair stand on end
- To put the fear of God into someone
- To be scared stiff/silly/ (half) to death/out of one's wits
- To be frightened out of one's wits/to death

➤ Here is a list of adjectives which can collocate with the noun "Fear." Do some dictionary work and add six of your own:

- | | |
|---------------------|----------------------|
| ▪ Realistic | |
| ▪ Imaginary | ▪ Exacerbated |
| ▪ Abnormal | ▪ Formless |
| ▪ Irrational | ▪ Nameless |

➤ Think of some other verbs which can appear in passive constructions in the context of fears. Choose five from the list and with a partner discuss in what circumstances you would apply them: